

Invited members of the local Argentine community recently attended the Los Angeles premiere of the 2010 hit motion picture "Brother and Sister" ("Dos Hermanos") at the American Cinematheque – Egyptian Theatre in Hollywood.

Jorge T. Lapsenson (l), Ambassador, Consul General of the Argentine Republic, and Jose A. Cafiero (c), Deputy Consul General, Consulate, Argentine Republic, joined Leon B. Siwek (r), Principal, World-Wide Waters, at the post-showing reception for a refreshing glass of the distinguished Argentine mineral water Lauquen Reserve, bottled in Patagonia. Lauquen Reserve is one of the Company's selected artesian imported bottled mineral waters.

Deputy Consul General Cafiero commented, "Lauquen Reserve is the perfect table companion in taste and 'mouth feel' to selected white and light red Argentine wines like Zinfandel."

Leon B. Siwek, Principal, World-Wide-Waters and Juan Balmaceda, (r) Export Director, Lauquen Reserve artesian mineral waters, Patagonia, Argentina.
